These events are free and open to the public. Registration is not required. Support for the "All School Exhibition" is generously provided by the George & Linda Deatz Family. For more information about this exhibition, please visit our website: <https://www.sgfmuseum.org/239/All-School-Exhibition>.

March First Friday Artwalk Closing Reception @ Robert & Margaret Carolla Arts Exhibition Center from 6 – 9 pm. Swing by the Gallery for our First Friday Art Walk opening of our first exhibition of the Spring Semester. Refreshments will be served. Entanglements: Aaron McIntosh "Aaron McIntosh interrogates the intertwined relationships between humans and plants—our interdependence, our co-evolution, and our history of hierarchies—across many artistic mediums. In Entanglements, the artist takes up the metaphoric potential of plant life where he finds speculative roots to scaffold and explore queer ecologies. McIntosh rejects colonialist and heteronormative paradigms that dominate botany in its perpetual 'othering' of queer-ness. Instead, he asks how might we imagine queerness through the sexual and gender-variant dynamisms present in the plant world." Read more about it here: <https://galleries.missouristate.edu/.../exhibition...>

The Shandies @ Cellar + Plate from 6:30 – 8:30 pm. The Shandies are Shannon Stine (vocals/guitar) and Natalie Wlodarczyk (vocals/guitar), a married female folk rock duo who have become a staple of the vibrant local music scene in Springfield, MO since they formed in 2016. Their sound incorporates folk, rock, and pop influences marked by their signature "fresh-squeezed harmony." The Shandies' fourth album, "If You Knew Me," was released in July 2023 and took their sound to a new level of production while keeping the same eclectic songwriting style they have become known for by their local fans. The Shandies have shared the stage with Mary Gauthier, Katie Pruitt, The Ozark Mountain Daredevils, and Sarah Lee Guthrie and were chosen by the Springfield Sister Cities Association to perform in Issiaka, Japan in 2019. Their song "I Won't Be Back" was a finalist in the 24th Annual Great American Song Contest. You can check out The Shandies' music at: <https://linktr.ee/TheShandies>

6th Annual Paul-Hardin-Memorial Bike Shop Fundraiser Out and Back @ Springfield Brewing Company from 7 am. With the ongoing permission of the Hardin family, the now annual Paul Hardin Memorial Out and Back will again be a fundraiser for the SBC's Community Bike Shop at the Fairbanks. (All funds raised by shop sales go directly to the Fairbanks - this fundraiser helps the shop keep stocked up with tubes, chain oil, rags, parts, etc.) The beauty of this out-and-back format, is that you can ride for as long or as short as you want by simply turning around and heading back to the Mothership when you are ready to. Or, if you want, ride the entire 200k out to Cooky's Pie Shop in Golden City. Pace shouldn't be too horrific - probably 16-18 mph average moving speed for the 200k group. Easy up the hills and just spinning some long miles into the legs to help those in their build-up for the upcoming Midsouth gravel/mud festival. Here is the route: <https://www.strava.com/routes/7594474>

FG Music 8th Annual Paddle Party & Silent Auction @ Fair Grove Middle School from 3 pm. At the Fair Grove Middle School Commons, Doors open & Item Preview at 3:00 pm. Paddles up/party begins at 4:00pm. Admission is free. Paddles-$3 each or 4 for $10. Bring a friend, get a free paddle! Brock Ritos Food Truck will be in the parking lot!! What is a Paddle Party you ask? A Paddle Party is a fun way to try to win some great prizes for less than $1.00. You bring 2 or 3 rolls of quarters and use these to bid on items. We have over 40 Prizes from our vendors to bid on that night. Bids are just 25 cents per paddle played. How it works: Each paddle is numbered. Once you buy your paddle, the matching chip will go into the drawing pot for the night. You choose what to bid on. All chips are put back in for each item. When we auction an item, you decide how many chances to bid on it. For each paddle you play, you place 1 quarter into the cup on your table and raise your paddle(s). If we draw one of your numbers, you win the item. If a number is drawn and there is no bidder, we keep going until someone wins!! ...It's that simple! A Fun Event Out for Girls AND Guys! Bring your quarters! In addition, we will have our great Silent Auction table filled with so many wonderful items!

Mr. Burns: A Post-Electric Play – Presented by MSU Theatre @ Cogger Theatre from 2:30 – 4:30 pm. $15 Adults; $12 Students/Seniors; special advance purchase discounts for students with MSU ID. In a post-apocalyptic world, the power grid has failed, and society has crumbled. Around a campfire, a group of survivors recall the culture they once shared, homing in on the “Cape Feare” episode of The Simpsons TV show, in which Side Show Bob plots to murder Bart Simpson. In the end, Bart prevails through sheerchutzpah. This gives the survivors hope. Over time, the re-enacted story evolves into a mythic form, with Mr. Burns as the villain who destroys civilization by sabotaging the nuclear power plant and Bart as an archetypal hero! An imaginative dark comedy, Mr. Burns, a Post-Electric Play explores the role of storytelling and live theatre in shaping our culture.

Lenten Soup-er Series: Anglican Spirituality @ 2645 E Southern Hills Blvd, Spfd from 6 – 9 pm. Soup will be served at 6pm and we will begin our programming at 6:30pm. All are welcome to join! Anglican Spirituality is not about gin & tonics; that would be Anglican Mixology! While spirituality isn't about the mixing of spirits into the right cocktail, it is about finding yourself on a spiritual path that has been distilled and aged – tried and true – and fits your tastes, trusting that your palette grows and develops over time. The path of Anglican Spirituality offers us a rich worldview and deep piety. As we will see, hear, and experience, the Anglican spiritual heritage has global and historical diversity, all while being in concert around our prayerbook tradition. (Oh, and one week of this engaging class is a sing-along spirituality!) Children will join Tatum Trader for age-level lenten programming.

The Play That Goes Wrong @ Springfield Little Theatre from March 7 – 10 and March 14 -17. They're back! We heard you, and this smash hit farce is returning to The Landers stage for 8 performances! This 1920s whodunit has everything you never wanted in a show—an unconscious leading lady, a corpse that can't play dead, and actors who trip over everything (including their lines). Nevertheless, the accident-prone thespians battle against all odds to make it through to their final curtain call, with hilarious consequences! You all know the classic whodunnit story: There has been a murder at a country manor, and an inspector is set on the case to find who the culprit is. However, when this plot is given to the accident-prone thespians at The Cornley Drama Society, everything that can go wrong... does! Lenten Soup-er Series: Anglican Spirituality @ 2645 E Southern Hills Blvd, Spfd from 6 – 9 pm. Soup will be served at 6pm and we will begin our programming at 6:30pm. All are welcome to join! Anglican Spirituality is not about gin & tonics; that would be Anglican Mixology! While spirituality isn't about the mixing of spirits into the right cocktail, it is about finding yourself on a spiritual path that has been distilled and aged – tried and true – and fits your tastes, trusting that your palette grows and develops over time. The path of Anglican Spirituality offers us a rich worldview and deep piety. As we will see, hear, and experience, the Anglican spiritual heritage has global and historical diversity, all while being in concert around our prayerbook tradition. (Oh, and one week of this engaging class is a sing-along spirituality!) Children will join Tatum Trader for age-level lenten programming.

Let's Get Crafty! @ 4 By 4 Brewing – Ozark from 6 – 8 pm. At 4 By 4, we're about more than just craft beer, we're also about crafting community. Paige, our crafting-enthusiast staff member, loves building community around crafting and wanted to bring that to 4 By 4 for a monthly night of getting together and crafting. This is a BYO Craft night! You can draw, crochet, sew, embroider... whatever project you're working on, bring it up! We will also have some adult coloring pages and some colored pencils, but we also recommend bringing your own-colored pencils, just in case. If you're in the Barley Room during this time, AND crafting, you'll get $1 off pints. Kids are welcome, but they must be always accompanied by an adult and their crafting doesn't qualify that adult for the beer discount. Paige will be your beer tender and help facilitate anything you need, and she may even crochet a bit with you!

Lenten Soup-er Series: Anglican Spirituality @ 2645 E Southern Hills Blvd, Spfd from 6 – 9 pm. Soup will be served at 6pm and we will begin our programming at 6:30pm. All are welcome to join! Anglican Spirituality is not about gin & tonics; that would be Anglican Mixology! While spirituality isn't about the mixing of spirits into the right cocktail, it is about finding yourself on a spiritual path that has been distilled and aged – tried and true – and fits your tastes, trusting that your palette grows and develops over time. The path of Anglican Spirituality offers us a rich worldview and deep piety. As we will see, hear, and experience, the Anglican spiritual heritage has global and historical diversity, all while being in concert around our prayerbook tradition. (Oh, and one week of this engaging class is a sing-along spirituality!) Children will join Tatum Trader for age-level lenten programming.

Chapter Program and Meeting @ Springfield Conservation Nature Center from 5:45 – 7:30 pm. Jack Stewart became interested in birds before he was old enough to drive a car. Fortunately, members of a local Audubon club took turns chauffeuring him to field trips and meetings. Jack's career included serving as the first director of the Whitney Eastman Nature Center, Hennepin County, Wisconsin and Science educator for International Schools Services, a non-profit that supports international schools worldwide. In retirement, he has devoted his time to conservation causes, focusing most of his efforts on birds because birds are a way to monitor the health of our environment. Jack served on the Board of Directors of the National Audubon Society for six years, was president of the Arkansas Audubon Society for two terms, and is the current Chair of the Society's Education Committee. The Arkansas Department of Environmental Quality has recognized him with the "Clean Water, Stronger Communities-Volunteer Award, the Buffalo National River Partners- Volunteer of the Year Award, and, together with his wife Pam, the National Audubon Society's William Dutcher Award. In response to threats posed by a 6,503 swine "farm" Concentrated Animal Feeding Operation (CAFO) built on a major tributary of the Buffalo National River, Jack co-founded the Buffalo River Watershed Alliance, a non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization created in 2013.
